

Raised Herb Garden Receives Face Lift

The raised herb garden was originally constructed by students from the Seven Generations Charter School in Spring of 2013. In summer of 2015, 1803 House board members planted new herbs in the garden. We had a surprise visit from three little ones who also helped...

