

DINING & ENTERTAINMENT

1803 HOUSE

History fans celebrate 215 years by enjoying pies and pints

PRESS PHOTOS BY ALEXIS BOVE

The 1803 House marked 215 years with a pie and pint fundraising event recently. Proceeds will help finance a project to replace windows in the historic house. ABOVE: Pat Merkowsky, Eleanor Nothelfer and Dave Small attend the fundraising event at the 1803 House.

Marlene and Gary Heller attend the event.

Brian and Linda Wade with Fred Zaraydnik enjoy an evening of pizza pie and pints.

Marian Schneck, vice president of The Friends of the 1803 House board of directors, hands a keepsake pint glass to a supporter.